

Mobile Medical Museum

2023 Mobile County Health Leadership Award

Learn more about South Alabama Regional Planning Commission Area Agency on Aging Director Julie McGee's years of service and commitment to public health.

Julie has served as the SARPC AAA Director for 25 years, overseeing aging, disability and health programs in Southwest Alabama. She is a licensed master's level social worker and received her MSW degree from the University of Alabama. Previous work in the advancement of public health includes:

- Serving as the Director of Social Services for Franklin Primary Health Centers for 11 years, and overseeing the development and management of multiple programs including medical social work and case management services, Health Care for the Homeless, HIV, substance abuse and drug court services, and clinic management
- Employed as a social worker for the Alabama Department of Human Resources for 5 years

Honored as Mobile's Social Worker of the Year.

She serves on numerous boards and some of her leadership positions have included:

- Chairman of the Family Health Governing Council of the Mobile County Health Department
- President of the Ozanam Charitable Pharmacy
- President of the Alabama Association of Area Agencies on Aging
- President of the Alabama Gerontological Society
- Long-term board member of Community Services for Vision Rehabilitation